WHAT IS THE PRODUCT?

Type: Mutual fund

Duration: The fund has no maturity date. The Fund Management Company has the right to close the fund and redeem the shares.

Objectives: The fund is an actively managed fixed-income fund with an emphasis on corporate bonds with a lower credit rating (high yield). The fund primarily trades in Nordic marketplaces. According to the fund's overall strategy, the fund invests at least 70 percent in corporate bonds. The fund may invest in transferable securities and money market instruments with both lower creditworthiness (high yield) and higher creditworthiness (investment grade) as well as in financial instruments without a credit rating. The fund's assets may be invested in transferable securities, money market instruments, derivative instruments, fund units and in an account with a credit institution. The fund's objective is to achieve good capital growth that, over a three-year period, exceeds the development of the fund's benchmark index, which is OMRX T-BILL plus 2 percent per year. The fund's return is determined by how the value of the holdings in which the fund invests increase or decrease during the holding period. The fund does not pay dividends. Fund units can normally be purchased or sold on all banking days. The currency of the share class is EUR.

Target group: This fund may be suitable for savers who plan to keep their investment for at least three years and who are aware that the money invested in the fund can both increase and decrease in value and that there is no certainty that the entirety of the capital invested can be recovered. No special prior knowledge or experience with mutual funds or financial markets is required in order to invest in the fund.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT RETURNS CAN I ACHIEVE?Risk indicator

The summative risk indicator provides guidance on the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will decrease in value due to market developments. We have classified the product as level 2 out of 7, i.e. a low risk class. This means that the fund has a low risk of increases and falls in the share value. The indicator primarily reflects increases and falls in the shares the fund is invested in. Risks that are not captured by the risk indicator include: Credit risk is not fully reflected in the indicator. Credit risk means the risk of the creditworthiness of an issuer or counterparty deteriorating, which could affect the value of the security. The fund managers assess the creditworthiness of the investments on an ongoing basis. Liquidity risk, i.e. the risk that a security becomes difficult to value and cannot be traded without a major reduction in price or at substantial expense, may be higher in corporate bonds than in short-term fixed-income funds or equity funds. The corporate bond market has lower transparency and liquidity than the stock market, for example. Liquidity can vary due to changes in demand and supply. In the event of limited liquidity in the market, large withdrawals from the fund may mean that holdings need to be sold at unfavourable prices and, in exceptional cases, that withdrawals cannot be made immediately upon request. This places more stringent demands on cash management and the suitable composition of the fund's holdings. The risk is also managed through the Company's ability to limit the size of the fund. This product does not include any protection against future market performance. You may therefore lose all or part of your investment.

WHAT HAPPENS IF THE FUND CANNOT MAKE ANY PAYOUTS?

By law, the fund's assets may not be held by the Fund Management Company. Instead, each fund must have a special depository that takes care of holding the fund's assets. In the event that the Fund Management Company goes bankrupt, the management of the fund is taken over by the depository. There is no compensation or guarantee scheme for investors in the fund.
